We tend to concentrate ourselves on the left side of the MOVE scheme.

Thesis: To improve effectiveness & efficiency in our businesses we too often focus on the wrong things

Do you know, why so many Change initiatives falter?

Do you know, why you stay behind your possibilities to gain effectiveness and efficiency?

Thesis: To improve effectiveness & efficiency in our businesses we too often focus on the wrong things

Behav*io*ur | Basic Bel*ie*fs

Do you know, why so many Change initiatives falter?

Do you know, why you stay behind your possibilities to gain effectiveness and efficiency?

The solution is to combine both sides

|Behaviour|

Example 1: The CFO expects others to change, but doesn't change himself

Example 2: Service folks mistrust the new system as they fear transparency about their time spent

Example 3: Do IT-people understand something of IT?

Behav*o*ur | Basic Bel*e*iefs

- Planted in early childhood
- Strengthened during our socialization
- Hard to give up
- My opinion is the right one – yours is wrong

Discussion	Dialogue
Assuming that there is a right answer and you have it	Assuming that many people have pieces of the answer and that together they can craft a solution
Combative: participants attempt to prove the other side wrong	Collaborative: participants work together toward common understanding
About winning	About exploring common ground
Listening to find flaws and make counterarguments	Listening to understand, find meaning and agreement
